STRATHCONA NEWS BOARD OF TRADE POST OFFICE TO MET LAST NIGHT BE IMPROVED

Interesting Discussion on Matters of Importance. Dr. McIntyre Reviews the Session's Work.

The Strathcona board of trade met in session last night at their regular meeting. There was no business of great importance transacted, but a number of matters of interest were discussed.

The chair was occupied by the president, G. W. Marriott, and Secretary James Weir was in his place. There was a large attendance of members.

The first business was the adoption of the minutes, after which J. F. Weir was proposed for membership.

Report of Council Meetings.
 President Marriott reported on the work done at the two meetings of the council on April 10th and 20th.

At the first meeting a number of important matters were considered. The alleged unfair discrimination, long made by an agent of Potter & McDougall in directing passengers to Edmonton, in preference to Strathcona, was reported to the C. P. R. and Mr. Proctor of the C. P. R. stated that if such had occurred it would be at once stopped.

The Harle soap works proposition for taking in the city coal had received a proposition from Mr. Harle, but this had never been made.

Dr. McIntyre had been written with reference to an interpreter and the most office, also that the Federal member be asked to use his influence to secure a rebate of $1,467.75 for the Clarke Proving Co. This had been referred, but Mr. Clarke will take the matter up himself later.

At the meeting of April 20th officers of advertising were considered and advertisements placed with Pearson's, The Chronicle and Canada West.

The Correspondence.
 The Winnipeg Telegram wrote with reference to staff correspondence, in which previously Strathcona news items had been dated at Edmonton, thus not doing justice to the southern city. This letter was left with the secretary.

Miss Agnes Dean Cameron, the well known writer, asked for some striking photographs of Strathcona scenes to illustrate her Alberta articles in the Saturday Evening Post. These have been forwarded.

The manager of Pearson's intimated that if an entire page of advertising be taken in the June number, 100 copies of the magazine would be placed at the disposal of the board. This has been done.

The Canadian Manufacturers' association enclosing the proposed new bill of lading and setting out the objections in a letter. A resolution in protest to the proposed bill was passed.

The secretary of the Victoria Board of Trade thanked the Board for their interest in the Alaska Yukon Exposition.

New Board Office.
 The recent letter received from R. R. Jamieson enclosing permission for the erection of an office on the C.P.R. property was submitted. During the past few days Messrs. Marriott and Sheppard have collected $175 from merchants outside the Board to erect a suitable office about 16 by 22 ft. On this a large sign "Information Bureau" will be placed.

Associated Board's Meeting.
 The secretary was authorized to send in to the secretary of the Associated Board a certain membership list. The president, the secretary, Mr. McIntyre, Mr. Hill, W. H. Sheppard and J. H. McDougall were appointed to draft resolutions to be submitted and as delegates to the convention there were appointed the secretary, Mayor Mills and Vice-President Dr. Folger.

A. C. P. R. Hotel.
 A resolution moved by Dr. Archibald and seconded by A. M. Fiddes was to the effect that the C. P. R. be asked to erect a hotel at Strathcona as they have done in other centers throughout Alberta.

This motion involved considerable discussion. W. H. Sheppard, O. Bush and others opposing it on the ground that it was useless to make such a request. It was carried, however, with five dissenting voices.

Extension of Saskatchewan Avenue.
 A G. Tipton moved, seconded by Mr. Blackwood, that the city council be urged to follow up the steps taken with reference to extending up Saskatchewan avenue. This motion was carried.

Band Stand Wanted.
 A resolution was adopted that the city council be asked to erect a band stand which may later be moved to one of the city parks. Mr. Smart was the mover and Mr. Pierson the seconder and they were appointed committee to wait on the council. Mr. Smart pointed out that Strathcona had perhaps the best band in Alberta and it was only fitting that they should be given a proper band stand.

Dr. McIntyre, on invitation spoke briefly reviewing some of the work of the past session, after which meeting adjourned.

P. BUPNIS CLOSER DEAL.
 Mr. Burns, the well known cattle man, came up from Calgary last night and the morning closed with the needed bid on the corner of Whyte Avenue and West Railway streets. Mr. Burns intends to erect one of the finest brick blocks in the city on this central site.

A Much Better Service Will be Provided for the People of Strathcona.

The point around which interest centered at the regular monthly meeting of the Strathcona board of trade last night was the post office situation. Some time ago the board protested that the existing facilities were not adequate for a city of the size of Strathcona. At that time, Mr. Blair, the postmaster, explained the situation, stating that grant made to carry on the work and pay the rent, which the new proprietors were increasing from $200 per year to $750 per year on the 1st of July.

Dr. McIntyre, the Federal representative, was writing asking that he procure better accommodation, and endeavor to secure a grant for a new building. He immediately wrote the department, and received in reply the following letter, which he forwarded to the board of trade.

"I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 12th inst., enclosing a resolution from the board of trade at Strathcona, in which the allowance made the postmaster for rent may be increased, and that a government building be erected at this point at an early date, and to say in reply that the question of erecting a public building at Strathcona is a department of public works."

In regard to increasing the postmaster's allowance for rent, the board was revised a short time ago, and increased from $200 to $250 the increase dating from the 1st of January last, and at the same time the postmaster's salary was raised from $1,200 to $1,500. These increases were based on the revenue for the six months ending 31st December last.

"On looking into the matter again, however, it was found that the revenue for the nine months ending 31st March last, would entitle the postmaster to a higher allowance for rent, but his salary could not be raised from $1,500 to $1,800 from the 1st inst."

In addition to the amount allowed for salary and rent the postmaster is paid the balance of the revenue of $184.85 as commissions on money order saving bank and postal note business.

"Sincerely yours,
 "R. M. COULTER,
 "Deputy Postmaster-General."

Mr. Blair, the postmaster, allowed last night, explaining that his salary had, since February, from time to time been changed, and the last letter showed further increase. This amount the post office may be much increased, and it was possible to hold the present building, and hold the entire office, including the part now occupied by a C. P. R. office. Still he thought the situation for increased subsidy would be continued as the present salary is not sufficient for a city of the size of Strathcona.

Dr. McIntyre, M.P., said the post office troubles in the west were causing much difficulty for the members. The revenue is adjusted every three months, and the discrepancies remain. While he believed in general fault-finding, he thought the board should point out specific instances of hardship with a view to remedy.

President Marriott—"Well, Mr. Blair, we can, I presume, now get a better service than we are getting. Postmaster Blair—"I think so, I have ordered more wickets and other improvements."

Mr. Pierson thought with the allowance to the postmaster, city is getting a totally inadequate service. Under the circumstances he did not think it was right for Mr. Blair to ask the board to go to the P. O. authorities.

A McLean facetiously suggested that the owners of the building provide a window glass, and that the postmaster secure some water from the city to wash the wickets. The following reply has been received:

The discussion continued further, and it was decided to leave the letter on the table for the present, and allow the question to stand over.

GREAT NORTHERN CANT COME.
 Some time ago the secretary of the Strathcona board of trade was instructed to write the Great Northern with reference to their plans towards Strathcona. The following reply has been received:

Replying to your letter of the 19th, I beg to say that Strathcona is at present too far away from any of our existing lines for us to consider an extension at the present time. We have been waiting for the new line to be built, which we can take care of. Thanking you for the suggestion, am,
 Yours truly,
 F. E. WARD,
 General Manager.

LOCALS.
 O. Mann has taken over the real estate interests of H. R. Armstrong. The firm will hereafter be known as Armstrong & Mann. Mr. Armstrong has taken a position with the C. P. R.

The Henderson Directory company are soliciting the Strathcona board of trade to take part in the directory of this year, which is to include British Columbia as well as the west. The firm is represented by Mr. Woodcock.

A COMPARISON OF LAND DEALS.

The Opposition at Ottawa in the session that has just closed, have borne the greatest testimony to their own discreditation by the revelations of the Insurance Commission. The Opposition met parliament with some of its prominent members under a cloud. Neither the defiant railing of Mr. Foster, nor the whining of Mr. Foster and his attempted protest of the fiduciary relations that exist between trustees and their clients, nor the protracted series of counter attacks carried by the Opposition, succeeded. The Opposition public opinion from themselves to their opponents and to the country that however dark and inescapable was their record, that of the administration was as bad.

Early in the session the watch dogs of the opposition went on the still hunt to gather up evidence to party the blow that was sure to fall when the report of the Insurance Commission would be laid on the table. They determined to fight fire with fire.

The department of the Interior was singled out for special attack. Again it was the government's policy did not stand up to the test of strength than against the administration of western lands.

Assaults carefully planned and systematically delivered in the hope of raising distrust against this branch of the public service became a feature of the session. The department of the Interior was put under the microscope. The land policy has been the foundation of the immigration policy with the resultant prosperity of western Canada. If public confidence could be shaken in the administration of the public lands, immigration hampered, and western development interrupted, property would be wanted, and the insurance scandals would drop out of the public eye. If some maladministration could be discovered and some scandal fastened upon the action of some Liberal member, it would be a palladium of the scorn and disgust with which the names of the opposition chiefs were regarded.

These attacks have been laid mainly against two transactions sanctioned by the Department, the South Alberta Irrigation Company sale and the Saskatchewan Valley land sale. The former is of comparatively recent date, the latter occurred in 1902. The main point of the attack in both cases was the same—that the parties who acquired the land would eventually sell it for more than they gave for it. This was expressed in essentially an iniquitous suggestion and one which the Government should not have permitted to be created. The settle, it was a good deal, would eventually sell for more than they gave for it. This was expressed in essentially an iniquitous suggestion and one which the Government should not have permitted to be created. The settle, it was a good deal, would eventually sell for more than they gave for it. This was expressed in essentially an iniquitous suggestion and one which the Government should not have permitted to be created.

These considerations aside, however, it may not be as wise to make a few comparisons between the transactions so loudly condemned by the Opposition, and the other transactions which these condemnations are designed to obscure. There will be and can be no denying the apparent fact that if a man buys an improved farm and sells it again at a higher price he thereby increases the price which must ultimately be paid for the land by the settler. And if two men buy farms and sell again at a higher price, the one after expending money or labor in developing and improving the farm, the other merely turning the land over as he got it, there can be no argument as to which has given the public the better value for his profit, or as to which has imposed the heavier burden on the settler. Between these two hypothetical cases lies all the difference between business and speculation; between legitimate enterprise and real-estate gambling; between the transaction of the Saskatchewan Valley Land Company, or that sanctioned by the South Alberta Irrigation company and the manipulations of Hon. George E. Foster and his specializing syndicate—with this added difference, that Mr. Foster and his associates did the gambling with money that was not their own.

The South Alberta Land Company was given permission to purchase 300,000 acres of land in the "new" land but at 8¢ per acre, provided they establish irrigation works to make the land agriculturally productive. They cannot purchase an acre of the land until construction of the works has begun and then only on the work has been completed and in proportion to it is completed. The company is bound to expend $1,000,000 in constructing the irrigation work—equivalent to $2.50 per acre. The Government retains the control of the water rates and thereby by the power to prevent the company charging an exorbitant price for the land. And the land cannot be sold indefinitely for speculative purposes, because all the land remaining unsold at the end of fifteen years reverts to the Crown. In other words, the company undertakes to put into the land $2.50 cash and to settle the entire area in fifteen years, the Government meantime fixing the rates they may charge for water.

The Saskatchewan Valley Land Company were given permission to purchase 250,000 acres of land at 8¢ per acre. The purchase was conditional upon the company purchasing also the right of the Qu'Appelle & Long Lake Railway Company, to a land grant at the rate of $12.50 per acre, selecting this land and closing out the claim. Before purchase of an acre of the land from the Government the company were required to place 32 settlers in any township in which they desired to purchase—twenty settlers on free homesteads and twelve on railway grant land. The purchase was permitted to progress only as this provision was fulfilled.

The Pope-Powell-Bennett-Lodge syndicate purchased from the Canadian Pacific Railway 200,000 acres of land at $3.50 per acre, they turned it over to the Foster-McIntyre syndicate at $4.50 per acre; and they passed it on to the Great West Land Company at $6 per acre, and kept the controlling interest in the Great West Land Company. That by the successive manipulations of Mr. Foster and his associates the land was loaded with $90,000 profits without the expenditure of a cent in improvement without bringing on any and a cultivation and without placing any settler on the land. All of this the $2.50, 600 from the Canadian Pacific Railway for the land and the land which it passed into the hands of the Great West Land Company carried a burden of $1,000,000. But the Great West Land Company is not a philanthropic concern and will not likely be satisfied with less than $1.50 per acre gross profit. This would bring the total up to $1,300,000, or $6.50 per acre, which the future settlers on this land must pay to Mr. Foster and his friends, who have not spent one cent in improving the land, or so far as is known, given the country the benefit of one dollar's worth of immigration effort.

This illustrates briefly the difference between the land transactions sanctioned by the Government and that engineered by Mr. Foster. The latter was business transactions by which the purchasers undertook the settlement and guaranteed the cultivation and development of land hitherto unsettled and unproductive; the second was simply a gambling device, by which Mr. Foster and his friends loaded the future tiller of the soil with a burden of $2 indebtedness where there should have been only one dollar, and returned did not expend one dollar in the improvement of the land or to enhance its value to the settler or the country in any shape or form.

This is the nullity which Mr. Foster has been about the necks of Western settlers, and it was to divert attention from this fact that the Opposition turned the last session of Parliament into a scandalous

SAME OLD ABUSE.

When the Tory newspapers run out of a subject for discussion they always fall back on Sir Wilfrid Laurier's imperialism, which they are pleased to call "weak and flabby." Canada's premier is too well known in imperial circles for any epithet of this kind to have any effect. It has ever been the policy of the Tory party to spread the opinion that Sir Wilfrid Laurier was a weak man, but much to their chagrin he has proven himself by far the strongest man in public life in Canada to-day, and has made a place for himself among the statesmen of the world very close to the top.

Sir Wilfrid's imperialism is the same imperialism of the day, and if his opinions be endorsed by almost every front rank statesman of Great Britain. It is true that he has not played the denougue and talked loudly of loyalty and the old flag, and made impossible demands on Great Britain, which is the kind of frothy imperialism that the Tory party enjoys and thrives on. Canada's premier has preferred taking the manly independent stand. Canada is not begging from the mother country, nor is Great Britain likely to ask anything from us. The British preferential tariff is strong enough evidence of Canada's desire to promote trade within the empire.

Sir Wilfrid has been the commanding figure at the colonial conference; his utterances have been those of a man who thoroughly understands the whole situation and who has definite opinions upon all matters affecting Canada. The country has no need to be ashamed of its prime minister; he has good reason to be so admired of a small section of the press that brokers it attempt to traduce the premier personally rather than offer reasonable opposition to his splendid administration of Canadian affairs, and his able representation of Canada upon more than one occasion across the water. What would the Conservative party not give for a leader like Sir Wilfrid Laurier—or a leader of any kind?

FLOATING STONE ITEMS.

Some farmers have commenced floating, although there is still some stone yet in the bank. There has been considerable illness during the past week. George Brinkman was very sick with neuritis. The people in this section are wishing that they were thinking that they help warm up the country any warmth left it come.

Mr. William Lively, who has been ill, is able to be around again. Leo Winers, who came to this country two years ago to take up a homestead, but returned East, has come again with a determination of taking a claim and seeing it through this time.

The winter has been so long that a good many people are out of hair. Mr. Stewart Colvin was a guest of L. M. Greenstreet on Sunday. Mr. Colvin says this spring beats him, but he is living in hope and he will not die in despair.

TENDERS WANTED.

WILLIAM MORSE RETIRE FROM G.T.P.

Rumor has it That There May Possibly be a Change in General-managers.

Winning, May 13-11, is understood that Frank Morse, general manager of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, will arrive in the city this week on one of his personal visits to consult with the local officers of the road regarding the proposed work under way and operations contemplated. If rumors now prevalent in railway circles and among those in close touch with political matters be accurate, it may not be improbable that this may be Mr. Morse's last official visit to the West. It is said that great dissatisfaction exists regarding the progress of the work and naturally there is much disappointment throughout the West and particularly at Edmonton, at the probable failure to fulfill the pledge made to help in carrying out the 1907 crop.

Practical men say that the trade, to say nothing of the rails, cannot be put to Edmonton this year. This view is virtually conceded by the Ottawa dispatch published here today. This dispatch is regarded here as being inspired and to foreshadow coming changes in the management. It may be that a sequester has got to be found and rumor association Mr. Morse's name with that incurable position.

In explanation of the above statement it may be pointed out that a gentleman in close touch with Eastern sentiment says there is much uneasiness in business circles there over prospect of a road being sold to Hudson's Bay and the consequent diversion of traffic of Western Canada, before the establishment of a trade route via the G. T. P.

THAW'S UNITE TO AID HARRY.

Ask Peace in Family for Concurred Effort to Save his Life.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 13.—The relatives of Harry Thaw, who was shot the first time thoroughly convinced that he is in life jeopardy, have decided to sink their personal quarrels and make a united effort to save the life of the prisoner.

Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, wife of Harry Thaw, arrived in Pittsburg on Wednesday morning and is a guest at Lyndhurst, the home of Mrs. William Thaw. During her stay here she will call upon her mother, Mrs. Charles J. Holman, of Brooklyn, and try to effect a reconciliation. It is expected that the aid of Mrs. Holman will be actively enlisted in behalf of Thaw as his second trial.

It is learned from a friend of the family that Mrs. William Thaw will accompany Evelyn when she visits her mother. Mrs. Holman has felt keenly not only her daughter's conduct toward her, but also that of Thaw family, so the elder Mrs. Thaw will also bear an olive branch.

MR. HERRON TALKS WEATHER.

Member for Pincher Creek on Route Home from Ottawa.

Winnipeg, May 13.—John Herron, M. P. of Pincher Creek, arrived in the city on Wednesday from Ottawa. Mr. Herron has kept in close touch with the West during the session of the House and states that there has been little complaint from the Pincher Creek district with reference to the severity of the winter or the lateness of the spring. Plowing was under way there some weeks ago, although it was suspended for a time since that time. The losses of cattle in the district during the severe weather was small owing to the fact that most of the cattle here are now in smaller ranches and are protected during the winter to a very large extent. Mr. Herron will spend a day or two in Winnipeg before proceeding West. Mrs. Herron arrived here with her husband, but proceeded West on Wednesday night.

SPORTING NEWS

ST. PAUL'S BEAT
THE CALEDONIANSIn Second City League Game in Park Last Night. Score was 2-1.

In a game that was hard fought all the time the St. Pauls defeated the Caledonians in the second game of the City Football league last night by a score of 2 to 1. It was somewhat of a surprise to the talent as many were of the opinion that the heavier Caledonians would win. But the light forwards of the St. Pauls found the good grounds to their liking and the win was due to the scrappy, snappy game put up by them. They have a well balanced team and will be a strong factor in the race for the city championship.

The Caledonians put up the best game on the field, kicking the two goals for St. Pauls, while Huff, Jennings, Dykes, Griffiths and Prendergast all played stellar football. The Caledonians have a good defence, as good as any in the league, but while there are some good ones on the forward line, little or no combination was attempted and they showed lack of team work. They have had little time to practice Todd, Lambie, Gray, Strathairn and Torrance put up the goods that kept the score down.

The teams lined up in the following order:

The Caledonians had the best of the play during the first half and got the only goal scored. They got the first kick on goal a few minutes after the start but a good stop by Liversay saved. Twenty minutes of hard play and the St. Paul forwards worked it down but they were held by the Caledonian defence. The ball travelled to the other end of the field, where it was kicked in the way. The Caledonians were now playing a high combination and in a mix-up before the St. Pauls goal. Hope kicked it through for their only tally.

The first few minutes of the second half was all St. Pauls. In five minutes Liversay had scored the goal and almost before the other was over he repeated the trick. St. Paul forwards were now playing rings around the Caledonians, and Dyke put through another, but it was offside. The game was getting strenuous and a penalty kick nearly ended in a score for the Caledonians. The rest of the match was well contested, both teams playing hard to win and both goalkeepers were given a chance to show their mettle, but the whistle blew without further scoring and St. Pauls had won. The grounds were in excellent shape and a good crowd was out to see the game.

Over twenty lacrosse players were out to the practice on the Second street grounds last night. The next practice will be Wednesday. The prospects for a good season of lacrosse are away ahead of anything yet and the practices are attracting more and more attention. The boys are all shaped now but will likely have a light try-out every night next week as to be in good condition for the Calgary game on the 24th.

EDMONTON ALWAYS WINS.

Yesterday Trimmed the University of Montana Team.

Special to the Bulletin.
Missoula, Mont., May 14—Edmonton trimmed the University of Montana today 19 to 7. Only six of the regulars played. Ford, Adams, McClaine, Woelker, Grimes and Crist missed the train at Sand Point. It was McClaine's turn to pitch, but since he was not within hailing distance, and since he didn't think enough of the job taking his turn on the rubber walk from Sand Point, McQuhan tossed them over to the university boys. Lussel caught a great game. Blarney played short, Bennett second, Baker third and Deacon White right field. Three local men were borrowed to make a full team.

The team plays in Helena on Wednesday and then leaves for Seattle. Deacon White was released at Sand Point.

THE PREMIER IN WINNIPEG

Hon. Mr. Rutherford Talks of Alberta's Development and of University.

Winnipeg, May 13.—Premier Rutherford, after passing through the city last night on way to England, where he is going on an extended trip, and where he will attend the educational conference at London.

Speaking of educational matters in the west the premier dwelt briefly upon the establishment of the university in Alberta. Through inquiries, he said, instituted by himself, he has found that in 1908 there would be sixty or seventy pupils ready to matriculate from the schools. There would also be eight or ten pupils ready for an engineering course, and a number more who would be desirous of obtaining a good agricultural course. Finding these, the government it is deemed it advisable to institute a university. The citizens, of course, could not expect a modern university in a day or a year. It was expected that things would be in working order by 1920. For the purpose of bringing matters into shape, the premier had been asked to register with the provincial secretary, and upon his return from England he expected that the senate of the university, to consist of five members, would be brought into existence. It would be the duty of the senate to manage the affairs of the university from then on.

Outlook in Alberta. Speaking of conditions in Alberta the premier stated that the outlook was very promising. The province had felt the effects of the severe winter but nevertheless the year had been one of great development. Particular reference was made to the fact that the C. P. R. for the north was active step toward making Saskatchewan a divisional point. With the development of the West, said the premier, the branch there would be a short line to Winnipeg, so by way of the C. P. R. With the completion of the 800 line, another important development of the country would be complete. As a consequence of the railway development in the west the province of Alberta would experience rapid progress. All of this development would not be realized within the next year, but in five or six years the development would be such as had not been dreamed of.

Mr. Rutherford also remarked upon the fact that the west was recovering from the effects of the transportation situation and the fuel shortage of the last winter. Both of these serious situations were, however, being relieved.

GLADSTONE'S SON-INVESTS

In Calgary Realty, and Will Build Large Warehouse.

Calgary, May 13.—(Special to The Bulletin.)—Col. Talbot, M.P., of the House of Commons, who is in the city today on his way to the northwest of Canada, and a large party of explorers will leave Monday, a point 30 miles west of Calgary, in the north. Their objective point is Brazeau river, which is about 40 miles south of the proposed Grand Trunk Pacific railway route and east of the 6th meridian. They expect to find wealth in the form of coal mines.

Sir John Langham, who, in company with Henry Gladstone, son of the late W. E. Gladstone, British Premier, passed through the city some months ago, were so pleased with the country that they made extensive investments. Today work was begun on a big warehouse, the site for which he purchased after returning to England. It will be three stories, which at any time may be increased to six, and will be one of the best warehouses in Calgary.

The National Drug company will in a few days start building a large new warehouse. It will be for manufacturing as well as for wholesale purposes.

Will be Sir Charles. Montreal, May 13.—Chief Justice Filpatrick of the Supreme court of Canada, and Chief Justice Taschereau of the court of appeals, will be knighted in Victoria day.

Snake White Insane. Red Deer, May 13.—A man named L. Hutter, shot himself outside of a shack near Burnt Lake on Wednesday last, and his body was brought in to town's undertaking parlor. The following day Dr. Dougan and a party of men, including W. H. Hutter, an foreman, held an inquest the following day, and a verdict of "suicide while temporarily insane" was returned.

Moderate Score Another Point. St. Petersburg, May 13.—The Constitutional Democrats today gained another victory over the more violent party in the lower house of Parliament by managing to pass their own resolution on an interpretation of the movement regarding the execution of four men at Moscow and by reserving the rejection of the more sharply worded resolutions by the social Democrats and social revolutionaries.
